COMMENT: Instructor seemed to have it in for me specifically. When informing instructor of learning disability, said she "did not care." Cited one source on final essay instead of the required two and was given a zero for final essay because it "did not meet requirements." Was accused of plagiarism of another essay, although it had been run through Turnitin, because instructor said that another essay "looked like it had been plagiarized." She claimed I could have payed someone to write it for me.
