COMMENT: THIS IS BY FAR THE BEST CLASS AND INSTRUCTOR I'VE HAD AT USM.

COMMENT: Let me start off by saying that I HATE any sort of literature course and the study of it whatsoever. However, now I hate literature a little less thanks to Mrs. Campbell. I have nothing but positive things to say about her. Anytime I have ever had a graduate student as a professor they have been "okay." Mrs. Campbell went above and beyond (in my opinion) as far as teaching goes. She is obviously passionate about what she does. Indeed she seems to be more equipped to teach this type of material than most PhDs. If you want someone to take notes on how to teach/handle a class let them sit in on her class. This lady is definitely deserving of a PhD...even though she goes to dorky poetry readings at T-bones.

COMMENT: I felt that in this class a lot of things were graded too harshly without really explaining why the grade was given. It was also extremely difficult for me to get in touch with her through e-mail because she rarely e-mailed me back.

COMMENT: Although Mrs. Campbell did push her students she was overall a great teacher. Being a student not very understanding in poetry and such she was very helpful and explaining her knowledge towards her students. She was a great teacher, wish i was taking more classes in which she taught.

COMMENT: Instructions was always conflicting, and changing, require much in little time

COMMENT: A required blog? That should let students know that they are in a mature learning environment.

Are There Any Additional Questions That You Think Should Be Added To This Questionnaire That Would Help Improve Our Classroom Instruction?

When examples are given and followed, why change and decided that is not what one want? Never had class so confusing.
